

Annetta Sipes

DNP, MSN, BSN, RN, SANE-A & SANE-P
IAFN DIRECTOR AT LARGE
CANDIDATE BIO

Annetta L Sipes, DNP, MSN, BSN, RN, SANE-A & SANE-P, Is a Clinical Assistant Professor of Practice at The Ohio State University in Columbus Ohio. She has specialties in Forensic Nursing (Sexual Assault, Human Trafficking, Elder Abuse, Child Abuse, Strangulation, Gunshot Wounds, Death Investigations, Domestic Violence, Expert Witness, Coroner Forensic Nursing, Mass Casualties, Vicarious Trauma, and Prevention Educator), Neonatal Intensive Care Nurse (NICU), and Women's Health (OB, GYN, L&D, and Nursery). She has her Doctorate in Executive Nurse Leadership from Duquesne University in Pennsylvania. She has earned her Master's in Forensic Nursing from Oakland University in Rochester Michigan and her Bachelors of Science in Nursing from MedCentral/Ashland University Accelerated Program.

Annetta L. Sipes is focused on advancing the Forensic Nursing Programs in Ohio Colleges and Universities by creating a Career Pathway for Graduate Nurses. Empowering Nurses and improving the quality of health care through victims centered/trauma informed education and practice. Always leaving a little sparkle wherever she goes.